

Milk, Soft Drink Prices Boosted At Doehler's

The price of drinks in Doehler-Jarvis vending machines was hiked yesterday, but application for price boosts was not made with the Office of Price Stabilization.

Prices of chocolate and white milk in half-pint containers were jumped from eight to ten cents. The price of orange drinks in equal size containers was increased from six to ten cents.

Prices of all three beverages was listed at 15 cents per pint. Signs announcing the new prices, effective yesterday, were posted at vending machines throughout the plant on Tuesday.

WORKERS AT the plant have threatened to boycott machines. It was pointed out by one group of men they work in 112 degree heat and drink on the average four bottles of beverages a day, which would mean a 12 to 16-cent increase in their food costs each working day.

A firm spokesman said the increases were made to add funds against the employees mutual benefit association.

Lindsley Loring Jr., OPS special agent from the Philadelphia office, yesterday announced an investigation of the price increase.

Even though the money was to be added to the mutual benefit association a boycott loomed against the beverage dispensers.

The increased cost to a worker who drinks two half pints of orange a day would be 40 cents a week, or $20.80 a year.

GARBAGE TRUCKS —

I don't think anyone here has that purpose in mind.

"I think, however, the refuse that washes off trucks would provide a breeding place for flies and rats."

Wayock said there was an increase in flies in the neighborhood since the trucks are parked outside. He said, "If you don't believe it my wife can show them to you. I've seen them on the sheets."

Bolton interrupted a personal exchange between Woodley and Wayock with "I think we're getting way off base, gentlemen."

Lukens said Woodley's trucks are parked in front of his home "every time I pass the house." Lukens asked the committee how long garbage trucks would be permitted to be parked in an area like Rosedale drive.

BENJAMIN STEELE, Pottstown health officer, and Borough Manager Dow I. Sears said they both inspected Woodley's trucks yesterday and found them perfectly clean. They said there was no odor.

"Steele said, 'I've checked them. He washes them every day at the disposal plant.'"

In answer to a question from one of the complaining residents Steele explained earlier protests against Woodley in the Ninth ward were limited to the noise made by his trucks. He said there were no complaints about the smell or uncleanly conditions.

Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells asked Woodley if all the washing is done at the dump. Woodley said it was except for an occasional cab which is washed at his garage.

The solicitor pointed out, "We have rats and flies out where I live. We have to set traps all year round to control the rat menace. And we don't have garbage trucks in the neighborhood."

"You can't say that the trucks are responsible for the rats and flies. I hardly think rats breed in the trucks."

WAYOCK POINTED out rats might follow the odor of the trucks. Wells admitted this condition might exist.

Councilman Paul P. Kohler said to Woodley, "I don't see why you can't keep the trucks at the dump as suggested by Mr. Wells." (referring to an earlier suggestion by

FFA Team Is 2d In Cattle Judging

A team of five Future Farmers of America from Warwick High school placed second yesterday in the Chester county PTA dairy cattle and livestock judging contest.

Nine schools were represented in the judging. Each provided a team of five boys for the event.

The Warwick team, Joaquin Matlack, Thomas Millard, Fred Painter, Warren Frain and George McCulley, placed fourth as a team in the dairy cattle judging. Its combined score gave it the second place slot in the contest.

This was a marked boost over the past year when the school's team ranked ninth.

MILLAD, MATLACK and Frain were among the top ten in the dairy judging. Millard placed fifth, Matlack placed eighth and Frain scored.

In the livestock field, which included beef cattle, sheep and this morning in a semi-trailer swine, Matlack and Millard tied for second place and Painter placed ninth. The high scorers probably will go to Pennsylvania State college in June for the State-wide FFA contests.

Robert Gregory, vocational agriculture instructor, who coached the team, accompanied the boys to the contest. They judged the stock on six different farms in southern Chester county.

Harold Clum, of the Solell farm, near Knauertown, judged the livestock contest, while Frank Matern, Lancaster, judged the dairy event.

UN Willing to Let Communists Confirm Wishes of Prisoners

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP) — The State department radio said today that the United Nations forces in Korea are ready to let the Communists confirm through their own inspectors that 100,000 Red prisoners are unwilling to return home.

The "Voice of America" in an explanatory broadcast to Soviet bloc countries said the U.N. would welcome questioning of the prisoners by a North Korea-Communist China team, representatives of the Russian general staff, or an international team from Communist countries.

"Make your own examination," the Voice said. "Then give your own figures on how many want to return home. You will find that the number is exactly the same — 70,000 wish to go back, 100,000 wish to stay."

The fate of the prisoners who do not want to return to Communist rule is one of the key issues in the Korean truce negotiations.

Film Claims Advertising Helps Progress of Man

Man has progressed through advertising, it was claimed in a film entitled, "The Magic Key," shown to 15 members of the Opticist club during a dinner meeting in the Clover Leaf restaurant last night.

The movie described how advertising has opened up markets for finished products during the past 100 years, and has helped create the desire for new styles every season.

The movie was shown by Ned Simpson, chairman of the Pottstown Veterans council.

President Elwood Angstadt was in charge of the meeting.

A poinsettia plant can be kept until the following season by placing it in the basement or some dry place.

Truman Says He Won't Run If Nominated

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP) — President Truman said emphatically today he would not run, if nominated for another term.

When asked at a news conference whether he would go a step further and say he would not serve if elected—a statement attributed to Gen. William T. Sherman in 1884 but disputed by some historians—the President asked how could he be elected if he refused the nomination.

Truman had some good words to say for Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), latest to announce for the Democratic presidential nomination, and again for Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, who has said he "could not accept" a presidential candidacy this summer.

REV. MARTIN J. BRINTON

The President denied published reports that General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who is running neck and neck with Senator Taft of Ohio for Republican presidential nomination delegates, is in ill health.

ON THE HOT steel controversy, he said all he wants to do is to get steel produced, that he's going to take every action possible to that end. He said he has no ambition to be a dictator and of course he will abide by the Supreme court's decision in the matter.

A reporter mentioned a rumor that William O'Dwyer, former mayor of New York City, had resigned as ambassador to Mexico. Truman said that is not true.

Today's interview dealt in large part with the steel situation despite

School Board Faces Class Space Poser

Increased enrolment in the kindergarten and first grade for next term provided a problem for Royersford school board at its monthly meeting last night. Supervising Principal Dr. Oliver C. Kuntzleman pointed out the need for two additional classrooms, because of 84 pupils registered in the kindergarten and 75 in the first grade.

The school head explained classrooms in the basement of the Adams building, adjoining the new grade building, are undesirable, due to poor lighting, unsatisfactory ventilation and lack of required means of egress to the outside of the building.

Paul R. Bean, of the State Department of Labor and Industry, inspected the building recently and offered several recommendations to improve the Adams building.

DR. KUNTZLEMAN suggested one solution to tide the board over until such a time as ample space would be provided by building a new elementary unit where the Adams building now stands. The board, it was reported, has visualized the need for a new elementary unit for sometime.

Dr. Kuntzleman's proposed temporary solution was to rearrange the furniture in the front half of the present public library room in the new elementary building and to use it for the kindergarten.

The secretary of the board, Mrs. Marr L. Latshaw, who also is secretary of the public library board, explained, however, the library board has other plans for the library room and the two plans would conflict. The board members will make a visit there and investigate the problem.

IT WAS reported Jesse Ochs, high school janitor, had resigned effective April 15. Until a successor is obtained, the board approved a recommendation by the supervising principal that two high school seniors, Albert Breidegarm and Richard Grime, will perform janitorial duties at the rate of 85 cents per hour after school.

John Cattermole, janitor at the Adams building, will work 12 extra hours per week to do the work Ochs also did at the elementary building.

Dr. Kuntzleman reported a temporary vacancy for next term for a teacher to take the place of Richard Phenegar, who has entered the military service. Ronald Hartman, who has been teaching Phenegar's classes, will not be a candidate for the position because he expects to be called into the service.

DR. KUNTZLEMAN also presented a complete itinerary for the Senior class trip to Washington, D. C., May 27, 28 and 29, and presented the school calendar for next term, which will open Sept. 2, and close June 3.

The budget for the term, which had been approved tentatively and placed available for public inspection, was approved finally based on a tax rate of 35 mills, a $5 per capita tax and $5 personal tax. The board also agreed to engage Mrs. Anna Diller for the census enumeration of school children at a rate of $60.

Report of Tax Collector Daniel J. Mowrey for the month of April was accepted, showing a balance outstanding of $4471. Total amount of the duplicate was $121,946. The tax collector also was granted exonerations of $3299 and reported he had filed liens totaling $875, which left a net balance of $597 outstanding.

In granting the exonerations, the board specified that the tax collector was exonerated but not the taxpayers of the amounts listed. The secretary was authorized to mark off $687 unpaid personal taxes of 1950-1951 from the books.

Amount of the new tax duplicate for the coming year was reported as $125,724, an increase of $3777 over the past fiscal year. The board agreed to turn the new tax duplicate over to the tax collector after he has filed his bond.

Total assessed valuation for the new tax year was reported as $2,801,840, with 2766 per capita tax payers.

BEFORE ADJOURNING, the board members witnessed a demonstration of a new telebinocular eye-testing machine, recently presented to the school district by Royersford Lions club at a cost of $250. Dr. George E. Rimby, local optometrist, described and demonstrated the instrument.

It also was reported the Lions club donated $10 to purchase career books, and the Woman's club of Royersford donated $62 to purchase a band uniform. All were ordered acknowledged by letters from the secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TO REOPEN Garwood Sunday school, near Black Rock, will reopen with a service Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. M. G. Reed is superintendent. The public is invited to attend.

2 Services Set Sunday as Part Of Anniversary

Two services will be held Sunday in the Spring City Evangelical and Reformed church as part of the 70th anniversary observance.

Dr. John Lentz, Norristown, will be the guest preacher during the morning worship service at 11 o'clock. Dr. Lentz, former minister of Trinity church, Collegeville, is college pastor of Ursinus college. For several years he was the vice-president of the Evangelical and Reformed church.

At present, though retired from the ministry, he is a member of the General council of the denomination. Dr. Lentz served as the supply minister of the Spring City church from December 1946 to July 1947.

During the service the special anniversary offering for the National Missions drive of the denomination will be taken. The congregation will try to meet as much of its $1722 quota for this drive as it can, as one of the goals for the anniversary period.

"COMMUNITY NIGHT" will be observed Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. At this service the members of the other churches of the community will worship with the members of the Reformed congregation.

The sermon for the service will be preached by the Rev. Charles Salkeld, minister of the Spring City Methodist church. The Rev. Ralph Alderfer, minister of the Spring City Lutheran church, will conduct the service.

Music will be provided by the organist of the Lutheran church, Robert Hallman Sr., and by the choir of the Lutheran church.

600 View Fashion Parade In Spring City High School

Over 600 gathered in the gymnasium of the Spring City High school Wednesday night to view the Fashion show by an Allentown store and take part in the annual presentation of "April Showers" and card party sponsored by the Chesmont Business and Professional Women's club, Spring City.

With a background of potted palms, Spring blossoms and an array of brightly colored tulips, the models started the "Parade of Fashions" with their appearance in bathing suits and sun togs. They were introduced by Gerry Golden, commentator, assisted by Miss Ruth Brooker.

Due to an unavoidable change of plans, the bridal picture which was scheduled to climax the show could not be presented, but taking its place was the showing of a group of gowns priced from $1500 to $3000.

Many fashions shown were by such designers as Ceil Chapman, Christian Dior, Trina Norell, Schiaparelli, Balenciaga and a collection by the new designer of the past year, Seagraves Johnson.

Miss Marian Vogenitz, president, introduced the commentators. Gold-den and Miss Brooker, and assisted in awarding the "April Showers" door prizes which were given in addition to a prize for each table of cards.

RED COUNTRIES PUT OFF LIMITS TO TRAVELERS

U. S. Stamps Passports
Not Valid for Travel to Iron Curtain Nations

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—The United States today put all of the iron curtain countries out of bounds for American travelers except for trips specifically approved by the State department.

To prevent "sneak visits" and protect venturesome individuals from risking travel to Communist-run areas, the department started stamping all new passports:

"This passport is not valid for travel to Albania, Bulgaria, China, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Romania or the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (Russia) unless specifically endorsed under authority of the Department of State as being valid for such travel."

Travel to three of these—Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and Hungary—already was prohibited and a system of military permits has kept Americans out of China since the Communists took over and started jailing some U. S. citizens already in the country.

THE EFFECT of the new order is to tighten restrictions on visits to Russia and the other satellite countries.

It went into force near the start of the tourist season which promises to break all records for foreign travel. In the first three months of this year, just short of 100,000 passports have been issued compared with 60,000 in the same months of 1951. March set an all-time record with 44,164 new passports and April is expected to raise this substantially. Altogether the past year 290,407 Americans obtained passports to visit foreign lands.

Officials said that the recent Communist-run World Economic conference at Moscow entered into the decision to tighten restrictions. A number of Americans who already were in Europe showed up in Moscow, using passports which had been issued with the understanding that they would be used for travel on this side of the Iron Curtain.

The jailing of Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis in Czechoslovakia, businessman Robert Vogel in Hungary and the imprisonment of 62 Americans in Communist China has dramatized the risks faced by Americans in venturing into Communist areas.

IN ADDITION to the new notice, each passport already bears a stamp warning that anyone who "attempts to use it in violation of the conditions or restrictions contained herein may have the protection of the United States withdrawn from him while he continues to reside abroad" and also that the holder may be liable to prosecution.

To visit any of the iron curtain countries, an American must have a visa, or a special permit, issued by the country to be visited. The State department has no direct authority over these.

In its announcement the department stressed that it was acting to "warn American citizens of the risks of travel in iron curtain countries." It stressed also that the new procedure did not constitute an outright ban on travel to all the areas.

"It contemplates that American citizens will consult the department or the consulates abroad to ascertain the dangers of traveling in countries where acceptable standards of protection do not prevail and that, if no objection is perceived, the travel may be authorized," the department said.

STRIKE EFFECTS ARE BEING FELT IN OIL WALKOUT

Some Service Stations Running Out of Gas; Truman Keeps Silent

DENVER, May 1 (AP)—Forced hoarding of petroleum supplies was ordered today in the face of spreading local gasoline shortages and a continuing deadlock in negotiations aimed at breaking a Nation-wide oil strike.

President Truman, asked at his news conference if he had any intention of seizing the oil industry, as he had the steel industry, said the question had not been put to him. The President said he understood an agreement was near in the oil walkout.

Industry, rail and air transport, and natural gas supplies still were largely unaffected by the wage walkout. But filling station pumps were running dry in the Chicago-Gary area. Other dealers, such as those around Boston, were restricting gasoline sales to regular customers.

Secretary of the Interior Chapman in Washington said strikes now underway in the oil industry will cut aviation gasoline production by about 30 percent and it already "is in short supply."

He said an order limiting use of aviation gasoline probably will be issued soon. About half of the entire domestic output of aviation gasoline is used for military purposes, Chapman said.

"Unless the strike is settled quickly," he added in a statement, "the use of aviation gasoline will have to be restricted."

AN AVIATION trade journal quoted an oil industry official, not named, as saying civil and military planes will be grounded within a few days if the strike halts the output of gasoline. A National Petroleum council official said he didn't think the situation that critical, but an airtransport official said the report "checks" fairly well.

Headquarters spokesmen here for the CIO Oil Workers International, largest of the 22 unions participating had called negotiations between an independent union and Standard of Indiana at the Sugar Creek, Mo. refinery "the most hopeful" of the day.

But these talks broke down in mid-afternoon and workers struck immediately. Maynard Sands, vice chairman of Local 101, Central States Petroleum, said that "there is a wall between us that no one could get over."

He declined to define the deadlocking issue. There were reports the union dropped wage demands to a hike of 18 cents an hour while the company offered only 15 cents.

THE NEGOTIATIONS between Shell Oil company and the CIO union in San Francisco also were broken off temporarily after hopeful signs earlier in the day. It had been expected a pattern for settlement throughout the industry might emerge there. A conciliator said "both sides are standing by but no further negotiations are scheduled." He added the union and company were only a few cents apart on their differences on a wage boost.

Meanwhile, Standard Oil of California said its contract with CIO oil workers at the Richmond refinery had been extended for 30 days. Company officials said this would have the effect of averting a walkout by about 2000 Richmond workers.

Original union demands, first voiced the past Fall, were for a 25-cent increase in the average $2 to $2.10 hourly wage and a boost in shift differentials. There now are 4 cents from 4 p. m. to midnight, and 6 cents from midnight to 8 a. m. Sought are 6 cents and 12 cents.

President O. A. Knight, of the CIO Oil Workers said an agreement late yesterday involving 3000 non-striking workers in Texas for Phillips Oil was "unacceptable" as a basis for settlement. It included the highest shift differentials but only for only a 15-cent an hour pay raise.

THE LION Oil company asked a court injunction prohibiting picketing by CIO Oil Workers of its chemical plant at El Dorado, Ark. The suit also seeks $50,000 damages for lost business.

Government officials warned of a possible major, nationwide shortage of gasoline. They said it would come if the 45-day supply is cut in half by a prolonged strike.

Deliveries of some petroleum products were prohibited in 17 eastern states to dealers or some big consumers with more than ten days' supply on hand. The order by the Petroleum Administration for Defense (PAD), covers automotive gasoline, kerosene, home heating oil, diesel fuel and residual fuel oil.

The PAD also banned exports of major petroleum products. Exempted were shipments from the Pacific coast states, shipments to Canada and aviation gasoline.

The orderly slowdown of about 44 percent of the Nation's refining capacity continued. But, in Toledo, Ohio men walked out of the Gulf refinery.

Rain Delays Opening Of Pottstown Airport

The six-day rain which ended early this week has delayed the opening of Pottstown Municipal airport at least two weeks.

W. E. "Bert" Wells, airport manager, reported yesterday it will be "about May 15 before we can open now." Original plans called for the opening on or about May 1.

Wells said rolling of the airport's two runways began this morning.

Other items to be taken care of include seeding of several spots on the runways and installation of four spillways (12-inch steel washers off Barbara's finger. The pipe drains along the edge of the field).

After runways are rolled grass mother, Mrs. Andrew Boyer.

Three Girls Provide Plenty of Family Woe

TORONTO, May 1 (AP)—Boy, oh boy, those girls in the Boyer family!

Linda Boyer, 4, got her foot caught in a sewer vent pipe last night.

At the same time, sister Barbara, 6, got a washer stuck on her finger.

Baby Janice seven months, hit herself on the head with a bottle. The fire department got Linda's foot out of the sewer and the three girls washed off Barbara's finger.

"What a night," sighed Mrs. Andrew Boyer.

The 13 selections on the program of sacred music include music by Bach, Handel and Grieg. The Rev. Dundore will conduct the devotion.

Son Too Young To Fly, Pilot's Wife Charges

LOS ANGELES, May 1 (AP)—Her man (Fish) Salmon, Lockheed's famous test pilot, may be a qualified instructor, but his 11-year-old son is too young to fly.

Mrs. Salmon, 38, said in her complaint that Salmon had been teaching their son, Randall (Scooter) Salmon, to pilot a plane since the boy was 9, despite her vigorous objections.

The Salmons have filed a cross-complaint charging cruelty. He said of his son's prowess:

"I wanted to be a cowboy when I was his age. I'm not trying to make up his mind for him, but I want him to be a safe pilot if and when he flies solo."

Calm Returns To Tokyo After Bloody Riots

TOKYO, May 2 (AP)—Calm returned to Tokyo today after the bloodiest May Day in years in which 20,000 Communist rioters attacked police and Americans alike in a violent anti-U. S. demonstration.

One rioter was reported killed by a police bullet and hundreds of others were injured. More than 60 were jailed. Police said 218 of their own men were mauled by the club-swinging, rock-throwing mob. Fifty-one were injured seriously.

Several Americans caught out in the angry streets were man-handled by the Communist mobs, but none was hurt seriously. A dozen automobiles belonging to Americans were overturned and burned by the rioters. Others were smashed by the mob, made up largely of college students and Koreans.

Several U. S. service men were among those roughed up. Two were thrown into the moat surrounding the Imperial palace. Most of the fighting occurred in the plaza in front of the palace.

The rioters carried pictures of Stalin and Red China's Mao Tse-tung and shouted "Yankes, go home."

THE JAPANESE government, through the foreign office, issued a statement apologizing to the Americans for the disturbance.

The influential English language Nippon Times called for the outlawing of the Communist party, a step the Japanese government so far has refused to take.

There were outbreaks of violence elsewhere in Japan, including the ancient capital of Kyoto. Police subdued with tear gas 3000 Koreans who attacked the city offices at Kyoto.

The Communists turned a peaceful Labor rally in Tokyo into a riotous anti-American and anti-government demonstration.

ABOUT 300,000 Japanese gathered in Meiji park to hear two visiting Americans, Socialist leader Norman Thomas and J. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters. They never got a chance to speak.

The Communist rioters moved in shouting and swinging clubs of bamboo. They were quelled by police and flying squads of members of the powerful General Council of Japanese Trade Unions, which sponsored the meeting.

The rally was broken up, however, and the trade unionists began a long march to downtown Tokyo. The Communists joined the parade and remained quiet until they neared the Imperial plaza, where they again attacked police.

Fighting raged across the plaza, overlooked by the palace guarded by walls and moats. and by the Dai Ichi building which is headquarters for Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway and his Far East command.

MANY AMERICANS watched the melee from rooftops. The beautiful plaza was turned into a battleground. Clubs, rocks, screams, dust and tear gas filled the air. The injured were laid out on the grass and on the gravel walks. Ambulance sirens screamed.

Blue steel-helmeted police at last drove the rioters from the Plaza and it was then the mob turned its wrath on American-owned automobiles parked along the streets.

Police finally succeeded in forcing the rioters from the downtown area and by evening all was quiet except for a few scattered fights in the suburbs.

As night fell, armed guards stood watch outside all American Army housing developments in Tokyo. Police were alerted against possible attacks on U. S. facilities and residences. Uniformed U. S. personnel were confined to quarters to prevent possible trouble.

Non-Communist Japanese appeared shocked by the violence. Many Japanese went out of their way to apologize for the incident to American friends.

Scarcity Has Effect On Pupils' Seats

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—The House of Commons learned today that nothing much can be done right now to make the seats of British schoolboys' pants wear longer.

Laborite Norman Dodds raised this basic issue. Dodds said experiments showed that a material made from a mixture of nylon and wool gave the longest mileage on active small boys.

The government, Dodds added, should aid manufacturers in making this new material available "and give hope to mothers of energetic children." But the president of the board of trade, Peter Thorneycroft, said the trouble was that Britain was short of nylon. Thorneycroft added, "It will be a long time before these cloths are generally available."

Conservative O. L. Prior-Palmer got in the last word with: "Will the president remember that it is not only schoolboys who need protecting in their seats?"

Teams Meet For Crucial Truce Talks

MUNSAN, Korea, Friday, May 2 (AP)—The full Allied and Communist delegations convened today in what may be the decisive meeting of the Korean armistice negotiations—now nearly ten months old.

The Reds presumably brought their answer to an Allied compromise plan for settling the three last big issues blocking a truce.

They gathered in the tiny tent town of Pannumjon as Spring was spreading new green and flowers across the rolling western Korea countryside.

The big question was the Communist reaction to the Allied proposal for retaining 100,000 out of 170,000 prisoners who say they do not want to go back to the Reds.

THE COMMUNISTS denounced the figure angrily the past week and broke off secret talks on prisoner exchange. The U. N. command came up with its new proposal Monday. Details were secret, but Washington reports said the Allies offered to drop their opposition to rebuilding North Korean military airfields during a truce if the Reds would accept the Allies' principle of not returning those prisoners who object to repatriation.

The results of today's meeting, which began at 11 a. m. (10 p. m. Pottstown time, Thursday), may not be disclosed immediately.

No Life Sighted At Wreckage of Stratocruiser

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, May 1 (AP)—The burned, broken wreckage of a Pan American luxury stratocruiser that vanished Tuesday was found in northern Brazil today with no evidence that any of the 50 persons aboard, including 19 Americans, lived through the crash.

A vast air hunt over 320,000 square miles of jungles, river basins and plateau land finally located the ruins of the 1½ million dollar double-decked liner in the Indian country between the towns of Barraeras and Carolina—on course to the end.

Air line officials said the find was made by a C-46 Pan American cargo clipper, piloted by Capt. Jim Kowing, of Miami, 287 miles southwest of Carolina, a Tocantins river town itself 1100 miles north-northwest of Rio de Janeiro.

The stratocruiser, lost on one of the line's El Presidente flights from Buenos Aires to New York, was reported to have broken in two and scattered its charred wreckage on both sides of a 300-foot high hill.

PAN AMERICAN officials said a Panair Do Brazil Constellation circled the scene of the crash. Its pilot reported extensive evidence of fire and said he saw two of the big plane's engines lying 1600 feet apart in the hilly, heavily wooded area.

The base of the rescue operations was moved to the town of Guaracema, closer to the area.

Pan American said it converted one of their DC4s to carry seven of the paramedics, headed by Major Richard Olney, of the Ramey field rescue unit at San Juan, Puerto Rico, and Ramey field's flight surgeon Major Oliver Seaman.

The stratocruiser was on a non-stop schedule for the 2600 miles from Rio de Janeiro to Port of Spain, Trinidad, when its last radio call was heard at 1:30 a. m. Tuesday by a station at Barraeras, in Bahia State. It was 240 miles beyond Barraeras at the time and reported all well. It went down only about 400 miles northwest of Barraeras.

Twenty-seven planes, from the U. S. Air Force and Navy, the Brazilian air force and commercial lines, took part in the long hunt.

Sen. Morse (R-Ore) called for an early decision by the Supreme court on the issues growing out of President Truman's seizure of the industry, saying "great damage is being done to the defense program of this country every hour."

"Let's find out whether the narrow interpretation as set forth by Judge Pine is the law of the land," Morse told his colleagues.

THAT WAS a reference to the ruling by U. S. District Judge David A. Pine on Tuesday that the President did not have authority to seize the industry. The judge's order returning the mills to their owners has been stayed pending action by the Supreme court.

Morse said that Congress had "neglected" to pass legislation which would set up legal procedures for Government seizure of an industry under emergency conditions.

By Rep. Fulton (R-Pa.), to create a special ten-man committee to investigate and study problems related to seizure and control of private property.

Lone Steel Picket Blocks Rails

Joe Mullen, Pittsburgh steel worker, reads reports on the nationwide steel strike as he sits on a rail junction at the entrance to the huge Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation to "see to it that nothing is moved in or out this way." The idle plant is in background.

PROMPT ACTION URGED

Steel Crisis Plans Offered to Congress

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Congress was handed today several new proposals for dealing with the steel situation, and was urged by two Senators and a cabinet member to act promptly.

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, technical boss of the Government-seized industry, said in a statement that Congress should give the Government some clear legal basis for dealing with situations such as the steel strike has created.

He said it is time for Congress to meet the situation "calmly, wisely and promptly."

Sen. Morse (R-Ore) called for an early decision by the Supreme court on the issues growing out of President Truman's seizure of the industry, saying "great damage is being done to the defense program of this country every hour."

"Let's find out whether the narrow interpretation as set forth by Judge Pine is the law of the land," Morse told his colleagues.

TOO MANY COCKTAILS

Legislators Charged With Party Sprees

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Angry representatives of the big shot politicians in House members jumped on Rep. Washington coming here and telling Edwin A. Hall (R-NY) today for saying some Congressmen get "genuinely plastered" at Washington cocktail parties.

There were demands that Hall be summoned before the House to explain remarks he has been making in campaign talks.

One Republican colleague suggested that Hall was no gentleman for asking if "tippling congressmen" might have leaked atomic secrets to "Russian stooges."

Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich) told the House Hall had been quoted as saying, in a speech last night, that Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), his primary opponent, was "the chief drink mixer for the New York congressional delegation."

"I think it is better for a man to take an occasional drink than it is for a man to spread malicious gossip about a colleague," Hoffman said.

SAID REP. HALLECK (R-Ind): "The voters of no district will be bamboozled by such tactics." Rep. Reed (R-NY) said he was "absolutely stunned."

"If I may call the gentleman from New York (Hall) a gentleman," Rep. Hinshaw (R-Calif) said, "his own future, if he has one in the House, is materially diminished."

Hall and Cole are GOP primary opponents by virtue of a redistricting law which puts both of them in the State's new 37th district. Both are long-time House members—Cole since 1935, Hall since 1939.

Cole is a member of the Senate-House committee on atomic energy, and in a speech at Binghamton, N. Y. last night, Hall said that committee "is nothing more or less than a group of playboys."

HALL DARED the committee to call him before it, and said he would tell it "something about W. Sterling Cole" and "how the people

Demo Race Is Declared By McMahon

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Sen. Brien McMahon, of Connecticut, entered the wide-open race for the Democratic presidential nomination today with a firm endorsement of President Truman's seizure of the steel industry.

McMahon, the fifth avowed candidate for the nomination, said he would not be able to wage a wide campaign because of his Senate duties.

The chairman of the Senate Atomic Energy committee said taking over the mills was "apparently the only way" the President could have acted to keep steel production rolling to meet vital defense needs.

"This country is faced with a question of survival," McMahon told a news conference.

McMahon, outlining his political views, said he believed the Roosevelt and Truman administrations did "an extraordinarily good job." He said they improved living standards, increased production, extended free enterprise and spread the "blessings of democracy" to more people than ever before.

He said that in the foreign field he believed in collective security and that he endorsed Truman's "Point Four" program to aid underdeveloped areas of the world. The senator is living in New York temporarily for treatment of a sacroiliac condition.

U. S. Envoy Speaks To Oatis in Prague

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—The State department disclosed today that Czech authorities, after more than a year of refusals, have permitted the American ambassador to see William N. Oatis, the Associated Press correspondent imprisoned in Prague.

Ellis O. Briggs, U. S. envoy to Czechoslovakia, found him in good health, State department officials reported.

Discharges Advised

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 1 (AP)—Honorable discharges have been recommended for two of the six officers of Randolph Air Force base recently charged in court martial proceedings for refusing to fly.

Four other Randolph flyers still face court martial charges. Two of them have been transferred from here on "temporary duty" a third has been granted an "indefinite" emergency furlough and a fourth, like the others, has been placed on non-flying status.

Blood Donated by Mercury Reporter; Finds 'It Doesn't Even Hurt A Little'

By MERCURY STAFF WRITER JANET ALLISON
 Inside the doors of the YWCA gym yesterday a woman in the neat uniform of the Grey Ladies sat at a wooden table to check off the names of those who came to give blood to the Red Cross bloodmobile.
 The gym, usually the scene of gay 'teen-age or adult dances, was changed. In place of the colorful streamers and flowers found on the walls at a dance was a large bulletin board, telling in pictures and brief notices the story of the bloodmobile, a large, dark blue truck with the red cross painted on either side of the van, which was parked just outside.
 "First-timers," those who were donating blood for the first time, felt nervous as they entered the room. I was a first-timer, too, and as I sat in one of the straight-backed chairs placed in rows on one side of the room, I looked at the blue curtain that divided the room and wondered the same things that all first-timers wonder: "Will it hurt?", "Will I faint?"
 * * *
 THEN, AFTER the necessary information had been filled in on the official form, I was ushered to another row of seats, where a white-clothed volunteer nurse thrust a thermometer at me and told me to sit quietly. A little self-consciously, I sat there while others joined me and were given their thermometers.
 Temperature and pulse checked, I was shown to still another row of chairs. All around me were workers from the Stanley Flagg company and other local industries. They all looked strong and at ease, and glancing at their cards I saw that many of them were donating blood for the fourth, fifth and sixth times.

 Before giving blood each donor is checked by one of three doctors and nurses who were seated in the front of the room, looking not at all in- congruous beneath the murals of outsize, smiling dancers clad in outfits of bright red, green and blue.
 The man seated next to me, who had donated blood at least four times according to his card, called the next step "musical chairs." It was, too, for as each donor had his hemoglobin and blood pressure checked as we all moved forward one chair to fill in the vacancy.
 FINALLY IT was my turn and I took a seat next to one of the nurses. While checking blood pressure she asked a series of questions, all necessary for the form, and before I had time to be frightened or realize what she was doing she had pricked my finger and drawn a drop of blood for testing.
 With a sigh of relief because it hadn't hurt at all I again took a seat in another line, this time with those who had gone through the preliminaries and were waiting their turn to give their pint of blood.
 One young doctor, supervising the preliminary routine came about shifting chairs and directing the line of donors. He explained that they were understaffed and it would be a short while before we could be cared for.
 Then I was called and walked through into the curtained portion of the room. I don't know what I expected to find, but the sight of

The Flirtatious Husband

What can a wife do with a flirtatious husband? Even though he would never for a moment entertain a thought of being unfaithful to her, it's a difficult problem to her for quite another reason, the reason being that to see him behave so, makes her uncomfortable and embarrassed for both of them.

A case in point is described in this letter:
"During the past few years my husband has often 'fooled around' with my friends or acquaintances (never the ones closest or dearest to me). This has always occurred in my presence, but each time it happens I feel deeply hurt and embarrassed. When he first began to do this I spoke to him about it, but he thought I was very silly, and refused to discuss it. My husband is intelligent, not worldly and not sentimental. I know he loves me and our two children, and except for these rare happenings, which leave me morbid and depressed, we get along well."

"IN COMPARISON with very serious marital problems, this may not seem an important one, but it is very distressing to me. I thought for awhile that I might possibly change the situation by 'playing up' to other husbands, but I don't like the idea and feel I'd be cheapening myself. I would certainly appreciate your wise advice."

The wording of this particular letter leaves me a little puzzled as to just what this wife means when she speaks of her husband's "fooling around." Since he does it in her presence, I wouldn't think it amounted to anything more than a rather crude and adolescent attempt at making himself agreeable to other women and having a little harmless fun himself at the same time. But if it goes beyond casual flirting to the point where he actually fondles the other women, then it's something else again, and I certainly don't blame her for being upset by such an exhibition of bad taste by the man to whom she is married.

Even so, she won't accomplish anything by trying to make her husband realize what an ill-mannered clown he is making of himself and how distasteful it is to her. Talking about it will only stir up his anger and resentment.

OF COURSE this wife is wise to avoid any retaliation in kind. It could do no good, whatever, for her to "fool around" in the same way with other women's husbands. On the contrary, it would undoubtedly create an even more unpleasant situation between herself and her husband, which would intensify the problem rather than simplify it.

Naturally, women who allow someone else's husband to "fool around" with them are just as

Conrad-Schoch Nuptials Are Staged in Boyertown

The recent wedding of Miss Jean Schoch and Sgt. Russell H. Conrad took place in Evangelical and Reformed Church of The Good Shepherd, Boyertown.

Miss Schoch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Schoch, Boyertown RD 1. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Conrad, Barto RD.

For her wedding attire the bride chose a white lace and nylon over satin gown styled with a lace bodice, long pointed sleeves and a flowing train. The skirt was lace over satin. Her fingertip length veil of nylon fell from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and feathered carnations centered with an orchid.

THE REV. HARPER L. SCHNECK, pastor, officiated at the wedding. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Sherwood Schoch.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony were the Rev. Harper L. Schneck, pastor of the Church of The Good Shepherd, and the Rev. Wilmer F. Mantz, pastor of Pennsylvania Reformed church, Pottstown.

Miss Fay Conrad, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of lilac net over lilac taffeta. The heart-shaped hat matched her gown, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses with lilac streamers.

BRIDESMAIDS were Miss Fern Conrad, twin sister of the maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Specht, and Mrs. Gloria Eschbach. They wore gowns of white net over lilac taffeta. On their heads were white halos with lilac net which tied under the chin. They carried bouquets of yellow roses with lilac streamers.

Best man was Mr. James Stauffer, Gilbertsville. Ushers were Leroy Slonaker and Paul Conrad, brother of the bridegroom. Acolyte

Pine Swamp Group Plans To Send CARE Package

Plans were formulated to send a ten dollar CARE package overseas last night when members of the Willing Workers of Pine Swamp Evangelical church met in the home of Mrs. Adeline Houck, Elverson.

It also was announced that a cake sale will be held June 14. The following will serve on the committee for the sale:

Mrs. Virginia Bitler, Mrs. Adeline Houck, Mrs. Myrtle Styer and Mrs. Alice Yelk.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Myrtle Handwork and the prayer was offered by Miss Irma Sheeler. Mrs. Styer, president, presided. Attending were:

Mrs. Estella Yelk, Mrs. Bitler, Mrs. Styer, Miss Carrie Hartenstein, Mrs. Erma Loomis, Mrs. Handwork, Mrs. Dorothy Bixler, Mrs. Mary Piersol, Mrs. Sally Care, Mrs. Helen Houck, Mrs. Jessie McCord, Miss Sheeler, Mrs. Alice Yelk and the hostess.

For a delicious soup, use three parts strong, clear chicken broth and add one part tomato juice. Heat over simmer burner of your gas range. Serve in soup dishes, garnish with sour cream or croutons that have been dipped in garlic butter.

Eyebrows Should Look Natural

A natural line is the new style in eyebrows. You can use a pencil, of course, but use it lightly. Don't look theatrical.

How goes your eyebrow-garden? Are you still weeding there's no sense in the home no-thing? Stay your hand. That fine line is no longer in style, if it ever was.

There is a limit to which extermination of those silky fuzzers should go. They contribute greatly to the expression of the face. They must be neat. They can be colored with the crayon, if you desire, but they should be patterned to conform with the contour of the eyes. Home treatment has often been bungled, producing patterns that were far from becoming.

Instead of one straight, thin line, as has been displayed in the past, the new eyebrow style shows natural width in the center, a narrow but fairly blunt inner terminal, tapering to a fine point at the far end. This is the new Hollywood notion. A moderate arch is considered more beautiful than a high one, though the high one is all right if the eyes are large and round.

Long, dark, up tilted lashes add to the sum total of facial loveliness. Lucky is the girl to whom nature gave this beauty blessing. Cuties who are movie fans probably wonder why all the stars of the screen have long lashes. The explanation is simple enough. The natural shafts are augmented by counterfeit ones.

The bases of the artificial shafts are dipped in an adhesive fluid that dries quickly. These spares are placed along the line of the natural growth. They are applied only to the upper lid. If the natural lashes are short and stubby, the false ones are attached to them. With a small pair of scissors, the new additions are trimmed to a becoming length. This is

Folklore Is Depicted In Decorations for Homes in America

By VIVIAN BROWN
(AP Newsfeatures Writer)

More unity in home decoration is being shown in a collection of coordinated fabrics and ceramics, designed by famous American artists under the auspices of the Associated American Artists.

The designs represent American folklore and culture and the desire of the artists' group is to give the budget-minded housewife decorative fabrics and home accessories with a museum background.

Each fabric has a number of ceramic pieces in various styles including lamps, ashtrays and plates, the motifs of which have been taken from the fabric designs. They are modeled in Stonelain, which has the heavy durability of stoneware but the porcelain lustre obtained by a glaze technique developed by Frances Serber and William Soini.

Doris Lee's "Curio Cabinet" pattern is on sailcloth and also goes to vases and lamps. Laura Jean Allen has done a nostalgic "Family Album" reminiscent of the gay nineties, and the same theme appears on her ashtrays and bowls.

Antion Retregier's designs are in the pioneer spirit with Paul Bunyan and the quilting bee, making a delightful theme for fabric and matching home accessories.

Sea lovers will enjoy the salty flavor of Witold Gordon's "Shell Chest". Flowers and plants are motifs used by Arnold Blanch. Familiar antique shop favorites such as weathervanes, oil lamps, trivets and doorstops were used as the basis of Aaron Bohrod's "Country Auction."

Grant Wood's "Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" also has been captured for this group, although it is available on fabric, only.

Dress of Viet Namee Eye Catching, Breezy And Reported Beautiful

SAIGON, Indochina — If you women want something new, different and refreshing—and sure to catch the eye—you might try dressing the way the Viet Namee do.

They're exponents of a high style that's irresistible—whether they're walking in the street or pedalling a bicycle.

What the well-dressed young Viet woman or woman wears of should make any Paris or New York dress designer rave.

Their main, daily costume is called "Cai Ao Dai — Cai Quan," a tunic. It's usually a long, white, apron-like gown that wafts gently in the breeze, fore and aft. It's also obtainable in yellow, green, red, black, or almost any color.

A beautiful tunic, with long slits down both sides, made of silk that usually comes from Hong Kong, costs 600 Indochinese piastres. That's U. S. $30 at the official rate of exchange.

But those of lesser quality can be bought for from 300 to 500 piastres and so-called "common ones," made of local textiles, bring 100 to 200 piastres.

The "Cai Quan" over which the tunic fits perfectly, is silk pajamas of white or any other color, costing 200 piastres. The "Cai Quan" fits snugly about the little Viet Namee with slits with zippers on both sides.

Underneath this clean, silky, breezy outfit, the Viet Namee wears a French-made brassiere, running in price from 100 to 250 piastres. Their "undercover" work is finished off with a pair of filmy, sheer underpants which many simply call "panties." These set the girl back anywhere from 100 to 250 piastres.

With all clothing angles taken care of, the girl gets a pair of beautifully embroidered hand-made shoes, costing 200 piastres.

The crowning touch is a pretty, conical-shaped straw hat. It's the cheapest item in the whole outfit—it costs 20 to 50 piastres.

Thus, completely outfitted, and buying the best, the Viet Namee girl spends a top of 1550 piastres, or $77.50.

But it's a good buy. The girl makes everyone take the second and third look—and then sigh—as she strolls up Rue Catina—the "Broadway" of Saigon—or pedals her way aboard a bicycle through streams of traffic—her "Cai Ao Dai" wafting fore and aft—her "Cai Quan" flapping about ankles.

French, American, British and other foreign women in Saigon admit the Viet Namee "look cute," but they haven't gone in for the "Cai Ao Dai-Cai Quan" outfit themselves.

Rummage Sale Planned By Salem EUB Ladies' Aid

A rummage sale for May 13 and 14 was discussed last night by eight members of the Ladies' Aid society of Salem Evangelical United Brethren church in the home of Mrs. Robert Berkheimer, 515 North Franklin street.

The group voted to supply flowers for the church on Mothers' Day. Mrs. Miller Yoder, vice president, presided in place of the president, Mrs. Lorin Ellis.

Reports were given by Mrs. Helen Wendling, secretary; and Mrs. Ida Yarnall, treasurer.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, June 5, in the home of Mrs. Yarnall, 511 North Evans street.

Others attending were Mrs. Florence Slonaker, Mrs. Julia Focht, Mrs. Libby Wendling and Mrs. Mary Robinson.

Housewives who buy a new automatic gas range, frequently install their old range in the basement and use it for preparing snacks and party meals to serve in cellar rummage room. It's good to use during the coming season, too, as an auxiliary working space.

SHE LEAVES MEN COLD

After a moment's pleased inspection, the average man would pass up this picture.

But not the average woman!

She sees what the man misses: a fascinating new accessory—the "glove stole." With hat to match!

No matter where she first picks up such news tidbits—about clothes, food, beauty, home decorating—only The Mercury gives her answers to "Where can I get it? For how much?"

So she watches The Mercury every day. Sometimes for a definite purchase—a new rug, or refrigerator, or a topcoat for Daddy. Often for any one of a dozen half-conscious wants.

Like men, women have found from experience that if they miss a single issue of The Mercury, they miss something important.

Why do advertisers spend more of their money in The Mercury than in any other form of advertising?

Because everybody reads The Mercury every day! So, why advertise only to fractions of the people who can buy?

RADIO AND TV programs reach fractions of anybody's market—sport fans, homemakers, kids, or whatever. And even they can't all listen when a commercial is broadcast.

MAGAZINES reach only fractions of a market. For each one appeals to some people—not to others.

THE MERCURY talks to everybody in town. It's created fresh every day to appeal to everybody.

Only The Mercury is first with the most news... the most people... the most advertisers!

Union Pickets Stay on Patrol Before 2 Plants

Pickets from two Pottstown unions kept up their unceasing patrols at the entrances to the Bethlehem Steel company and the Pottstown Manufacturing company yesterday, with no idea of when they might return to work.

Members of Pottstown Local 2177, United Steel Workers (CIO), left their jobs Tuesday night when an injunction against Government seizure of the steel industry precipitated the fastest strike in the history of the mills.

Workers watching at the gates to the sprawling plant on South Keim street were waiting word from Philip Murray, president of both the steel workers and the CIO, as to when they will go back to their jobs. Murray maintained his silence in Pittsburgh, although the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals had granted a stay of the injunction Wednesday and the mills still were technically under Government control.

The strike at the Pottstown Manufacturing company came suddenly Wednesday morning in a dispute over a company-controlled merit increase system. There were no new developments in the walkout yesterday and pickets manned the lines about the plant.

A COMPANY spokesman said he still was anticipating a meeting with officials of the Pottstown Manufacturing unit of Amalgamated Local 644, United Auto Workers (CIO), and John A. Shaner, local business agent Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting had been scheduled before the workers left their jobs. Meanwhile, the striking employees had rented a garage near the plant as a headquarters for the picket lines. Hot coffee is provided for the ten to 20 workers manning each shift under a picket captain and subcaptain.

A spokesman for the unit said the lines will be maintained about the plant as long as the strike lasts.

Hot soup and coffee is being provided for the pickets at Bethlehem Steel from an old bus which has been set up as a headquarters. The bus is parked on one of the company's parking lots for the convenience of the pickets.

At both plants, supervisory and other personnel not affected by the strike are being permitted to pass the picket lines.

OIL STRUCK —

supplies store of Harry A. Keene estate, said he believed the strike of oil was a result of the record-length rain storm that ended the last Wednesday.

He said that oil and water can travel for a considerable distance underground in the neighborhood because Tanyard run, which was covered about 40 years ago, runs underground on a diagonal line past the Keene building.

Water or oil can get into the basement easily because it is slightly lower than the sewer lines. A sump pump is kept in the basement continually to keep out the water.

So far, the sump pump has kept ahead of the oil leak, and no damage has been done to the basement.

Bitting said he first thought that there was a gas leak, but a gas repairman identified it as fuel oil.

Samples made of the leakage beneath the basement floor could not determine the amount of oil that has been leaking, but Lindauer and Bitting agreed that it's plenty.

ping up for quite some time." The field men will have to recover all the unclean poisoned baits they have spread through their territories.

THE LAST days of the final phase of the campaign, the operation against foxes in Chester county which was the focal point of infection, were marred by the recent six-day rain, Ralph L. Shank, district game protector for northern Chester county, said.

The rain caused the vegetation to sprout unusually fast and hindered the drive somewhat, he explained. In addition, young rabbits and other natural food of the foxes are appearing in greater numbers and are making it difficult to take a fox with artificial bait.

"But we have been doing better than we expected," Shank said. "Generally we have covered the area pretty well and have gotten bait into all the townships assigned to us."

Shank said he had received only a few calls on foxes in recent months, whereas a year ago one and two calls a day had been coming in. He reported he and his crews will begin picking up the baits now and will try to have them all recovered as rapidly as possible.

The locations of all baits were marked when they were set out.

Communist Group Fired On in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, May 1 (AP)—A small Communist group tagging along after being excluded from Mexico's big union-organized May Day parade was fired on today by a band of armed men.

A student marcher was killed and at least 17 other persons were wounded by the burst of gunfire at the tag-end of the turnout estimated by labor leaders at a half-million non-Communist marchers.

A wild melee followed the open ambush, with spectators and some members of the Communist group chasing the fleeing gunmen.

The labor march was officially reported to be the largest ever on a May Day in Mexico City.

Fords Jolt EG; Pirates Win

Royersford Takes One-Game Lead in Perk on 18-1 Nod

Royersford High moved its efficient run-making machine back into the groove yesterday to crush East Greenville, 18-1, and solidify its position at the head of the Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley league heap.

The win, Royersford's sixth in seven starts, pulled the Eagles a full game away from runnerup Boyertown and left defending king, East Greenville nursing a 4-3 record.

Ray Slawski was on target again, setting the Geemies down on three hits and keeping them clear of the plate until the Fords, owned a 16-0 advantage. Slawski struck out eight, walked only two in notching his fourth pitching win in five starts.

The loser was Smith, who surrendered seven runs in the first inning. His successor, Snyder, was given the same treatment in the second frame, and that told the story.

TWO ERRORS, a hit batsman, four walks and only two singles, by Slawski and Bill Boettger, produced the first inning burst.

The Fords struck for seven more runs in the second round on four more walks, an error, a hit batsman and four hits. Gene Lincoln doubled, and Jake Troutwine, Fred DePaoli and Bob Quinn slammed singles in the inning.

Royersford needed only nine hits for twice that many runs. Boettger, batting No. 9, had two of the blows and Quinn had two. Doubles by Lincoln and Charlie Miller were the Fords' only extra-sackers.

Hill Midgets Nip JHS Jayvees, 4-3

The Hill Midgets came from behind with a two-run rally in the sixth to register their initial victory of the year, beating Pottstown Jr. High's JV's, 4-3, at the Hill, yesterday.

Tom Elder's walk, two stolen bases and a squeeze bunt by Chris Wilson brought in the tying run. Charley Tatum singled in pitcher Joe Castillo, who had walked and pilfered second, with the winning run, two batters later. Jim Hallman suffered the loss for Pottstown.

Hal Gregg Hurls No-Hitter on Coast

OAKLAND, May 1 (AP)—Right-hander Hal Gregg, of Anaheim, Calif., tonight pitched a no-hit, no-run game for Oakland in the seven-inning first game of a double-header with Portland, 3-0. Gregg struck out five and walked four.

Gregg, 30-year-old six-footer, lost control briefly and walked Jim Russell and Joe Brovia with one away in the seventh, but he tightened up and made Clint Conster bounce into a game-ending double play.

Howard Brinker, end coach and chief scout for the Cleveland Browns in the NFL holds a Masters Degree in Physical Education from Ohio State U.

Ricketts' Day

Dave Ricketts (left) accepts Boosters' club plaque as Pottstown High's outstanding basketball player of the 1951-52 season from club representative Dan Pettigrew as Howie Bedell (fancy shirt) and Jim Price, teammates, look on. The presentation was made yesterday in PHS award assembly. (Full list of award-winners appears in School News, Page 16).

DAVE RICKETTS NAMED OUTSTANDING PLAYER

Dave Ricketts carted away the Boosters' club's "outstanding player" award for Pottstown High basketball yesterday at a special sports award program at PHS.

It was no contest. Ricketts was a winner all the way as he sparked the Trojans to an outstanding season and a near-miss for the Ches-Mont league title. He was presented the Award by Dan Pettigrew, PHS trainer, who represented the Boosters at the affair.

The Boosters club plans to make the presentation an annual affair. It honored PHS outstanding football linemen and back in similar fashion last fall.

Every Pottstown High Winter athlete came away with something to show for his efforts yesterday. Letters and awards were given to varsity and junior varsity basketball players, girls hockey and basketball players, and swimmers.

Even the 1951 Trojans baseball team got in on the act. They were awarded gold baseballs for winning the Ches-Mont league championship in an unbeaten sweep.

Present to grab off one of the baseballs was Dick Ricketts, Duquesne university basketball star. With him were Lou Iezzi, a Duquesne teammate and former PHS star, and Duke coach Dudley Moore.

The three were later honored at a "welcome home" dinner at Rotary club meeting in the Elks home.

Boyertown Rout's Amity, 16-1, for 9th Victory

Three little-used Boyertown High pitchers collaborated on a two-hit pitching job yesterday and the Bruins went to work on two Amity High hurlers for 13 blows in a 16-1 triumph. It was the ninth win of the year against only two setbacks for Coach Warren Fry's charges.

It was an off-day in the Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley league for the Bears and they used it to sharpen their aim for the run to the wire in the conference. They are runners-up to Royersford at this point.

The Bears punched out five runs in the first inning and seven in the fifth to win in a breeze. Catcher Dick Yerger led the attack with a double and single as Fry employed his entire squad.

Charlie Fronheiser pitched three hitless innings, Charlie Christman gave up two blows and the only Amity run in three, and Yerker was hitproof in the finale.

Neborak Pitches Three-Hitter to Stop Norco, 3-0

Paul Neborak, who had been having his pitching troubles, got in the slot yesterday to hurl a neat three-hit shutout as Spring City's threatening Pirates stopped Norco, 3-0, at Spring City.

Neborak outthrew Gene Clements, the Wildcat ace, and contributed three hits and two runs to the Buc attack. He singled home the only run he needed in the first inning behind Al Stipa's basehit, then scored in the third on Ron Boettger's three-bagger.

Clements whiffed 14 Pirates and allowed eight scattered hits, but he had no answer to Neborak and Boettger, who teamed for five hits.

SC's final run crossed in the fifth when Neborak and Boettger stroked one-two singles and Lowell Mull in centerfield booted Boettger's blow.

The Wildcats threatened in the last inning when they got two of their three hits. Mull singled to open the inning, but Clements and Laine Keeler whiffed. Pete Lang then whacked a ground rule double into the centerfield stands, Mull stopping at third.

Neborak got out of it by inducing Ron Domin to bounce to the mound. That ended the threat and the ball game.

It was SC's fourth win in six decisions and hoisted the Bucs into third place ahead of East Greenville. Norco is 2-4.

JHS Trackmen Rout Whippets

Pottstown Junior High's pint-sized track team ran up a king-sized score for the second successive time, yesterday, flouting Downingtown, 101-28, on the Junior Whippets' home grounds.

The win was the second in a row for the Cubs in addition to the Ches-Mont relayers JHS crown. In their only previous dual meet, the locals swamped Phoenixville, 100-29.

Yesterday, they even topped that by winning all but three events, sweeping five, and once again copping all five of the relay tests.

The individual standout for Pottstown was diminutive Dee Hespeth who pushed his 85 pounds over the 50-yard trek in 6.4 seconds for a new school record. His mark is also 1/10th of a second faster than the current district mark, so Hespeth might do some further cracking when that meet rolls around, if he continues his recent form.

Browns Stop Red Sox, 6-1; Nats Edge Indians in 13 Innings, 2-1

—BROWNS—
BOSTON, May 1 (AP)—Right-hander Duane Pillette threw a five-hitter against the Boston Red Sox and batted in three runs today to give the St. Louis Browns a 6-1 victory that moved them to within a game of the American League's top place.

Pillette held the Red Sox, playing without Ted Williams, scoreless until the eighth inning when a walk to Gene Stephens, Junior Stephens' single to left, and Walt Dropo's grounder provided the lone Boston run.

The surprising Browns, who totaled 10 hits off three Red Sox hurlers, knicked starter Walt Masterson for single tallies in the second and fourth innings and then shelled him out of action with a three-run explosion in the fifth.

Rookie outfielder George Schmees started that uprising by doubling to center with one out. Dick Kryhoski then drew credit for a single when second baseman Ted Lepcio lost his easy pop fly in the sun. After Kryhoski stole second, Schmees scored on Leo Thomas' fly to center.

Masterson then purposely passed Clint Courtney, only to have Pillette belt a screaming double to the center field wall to drive in Kryhoski and Courtney.

The Browns added their sixth run in the seventh against Bill Wright on a pass to Schmees and singles by Kryhoski and Thomas.

The Browns opened their scoring in the second inning when, with two out, Thomas doubled to left-center, Courtney walked and Pillette singled over second base. A walk to Thomas and a Courtney double provided the second St. Louis marker in the fourth. The Courtney blow was against the left field wall and Thomas had no trouble scoring from first base as Gene Stephens, filling in for the departed Williams, misjudged the bound.

Strike Threat

CHICAGO, May 1 (AP)—Chicago today was faced with the first horsemen's strike in its racing history.

Negotiations between the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective association and the Sportsman's park management collapsed after a long meeting over higher purse distribution.

Warren C. Giles, president of the National League, is the tenth man to hold down the senior circuit's top post.

Detroit Defeats Yankees, 5-4, on Trout's Hurling

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Dizzy Trout stifled a New York Yankee rally with a spectacular ninth-inning relief job tonight as Detroit secured a 5-4 win for Art Houtteman.

Successful two-run homers by Vic Wertz in the fourth and fifth innings built up an early Detroit cushion.

Wertz hit his first homer after Johnny Sain walked Pat Mullin in the fourth. A single by Mares, an error by Brown, and a single by Lipon added a third run. Wertz hit his second homer of the night, and fifth of the season, off Sain after Mullin singled with two out in the fifth.

The Yanks got to Houtteman for a run in the second on a walk to Berra, a single by Gene Woodling, Gil McDougald's sacrifice and Brown's scoring fly to Wertz.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (AP)—Sid Hudson outlasted Bob Lemon in a tense 13-inning pitching duel tonight, with Gil Coan's double and Frank Campos' single producing the winning run as Washington defeated Cleveland, 2-1.

Coan opened the Senators' 13th with a double to left. Outfielder Dale Mitchell injured his left shoulder in a desperation dive for the ball and was replaced. Irv Noren popped out, but Campos slashed a single to center and Coan scored standing.

The Indians, who nicked Hudson for a run in the first inning, advanced a runner to third base in each of the last four innings, but each time Hudson choked off the potential winning run.

Hudson, who posted his first victory, allowed 12 hits. Lemon, who now has won 2 and lost 2, gave up ten hits. The Senators tied the score in the eighth inning when Mickey Grasso singled, Hudson sacrificed and Eddie Yost doubled to center.

Phils HRs Jar Cards

ST. LOUIS, May 1 (AP)—Successful home runs by Nippy Jones and Connie Ryan, in the sixth inning, wiped out a St. Louis Cardinal lead and sent the Philadelphia Phillies on to a 6 to 3 victory tonight.

Robin Roberts kept eight Cardinal hits scattered in getting his third victory of the season.

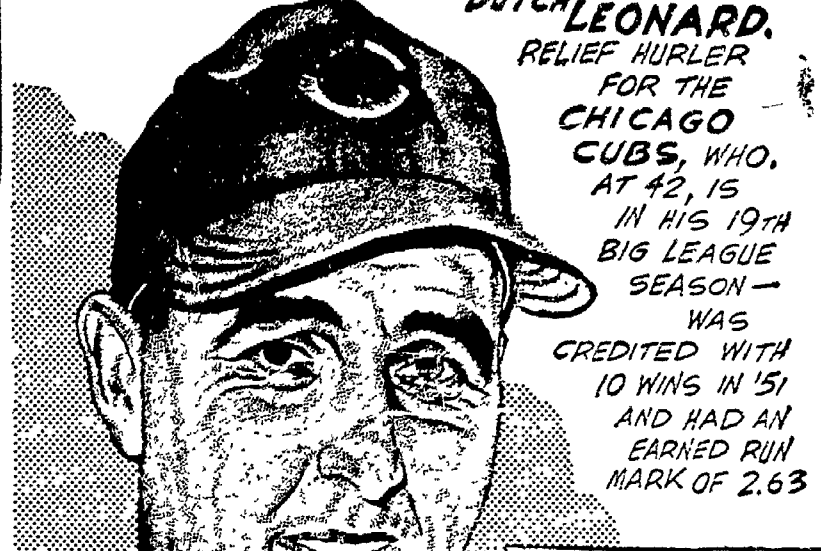

Two were out when Jones hit his first homer of the year, scoring Willie Jones and himself with the tying runs at 3-3, and Ryan's homer, to the same spot in the bleachers, chased Cliff Chambers out of the game.

The Cardinals obtained their early lead on timely hits, aided by a throwing error by catcher Stan Lopata. Solmie Hemus singled in the first inning and as he stole second, Lopata threw into center field. Then Red Schoendienst singled him home.

Singles by Hemus, Schoendienst, a base on balls to Stan Musial and Peanuts Lowrey's single scored two more for the Redbirds in the fourth. That's the last the Cards saw of the plate.

Richie Ashburn's double, starting the fourth followed by Willie (Continued on Page Twenty-six)

The Cardinals obtained their early lead on timely hits, aided by a throwing error by catcher Stan Lopata. Solmie Hemus singled in the first inning and as he stole second, Lopata threw into center field. Then Red Schoendienst singled him home.

Singles by Hemus, Schoendienst, a base on balls to Stan Musial and Peanuts Lowrey's single scored two more for the Redbirds in the fourth. That's the last the Cards saw of the plate.

ST. LOUIS, May 1 (AP)—Successful home runs by Nippy Jones and Connie Ryan, in the sixth inning, wiped out a St. Louis Cardinal lead and sent the Philadelphia Phillies on to a 6 to 3 victory tonight.

Two were out when Jones hit his first homer of the year, scoring Willie Jones and himself with the tying runs at 3-3, and Ryan's homer, to the same spot in the bleachers, chased Cliff Chambers out of the game.

Cubs Jolt Flock, 7-2, Near Lead

CHICAGO, May 1 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs, 1951 tail-enders, nearly reached the top of the National League today, with a 7-2 spanking of first place Brooklyn as Johnny Klippstein weathered late-inning pressure to win his first start of the season.

Although a half game ahead of the Dodgers on a won-loss basis, the Cubs still trail second on the percentage basis .727 to .714. Brooklyn has an 8-3 record and the Cubs four hits and the Dodgers total of 10-4.

A ladies' day throng of 25,588 saw big Hank Sauer, the league's ninth, Klippstein had allowed two harmless hits in the first inning and a single each in the fourth, seventh and eighth.

The Cubs' 10-hit attack off Branca and his three successors also included triples by Bob Ramazotti and Toby Atwell and a two-bagger by Roy Smalley. Branca was yanked in the fourth to suffer his first defeat.

Branca, who had won his only previous start, was nicked for eight hits, including all four extra-base Cub blows in the three and two-thirds innings he tolled.

Klippstein, who previously had pitched 10 innings in three relief appearances, struck out six, and was in real trouble only in the last two innings. He managed to escape unscathed with the bases loaded and only one out in the eighth innings, but was rapped for four hits and the Dodgers total of two runs in the ninth.

Gift Silver Hurt, Will Miss Derby

LOUISVILLE, May 1 (AP)—Gift Silver, which was born out of formal equine wedlock and became a Kentucky Derby eligible, had to step out of the racing classic today.

The little horse, nominated for Saturday's $100,000 event despite his lack of experience in any race, has a cut on his right foreleg which has not healed sufficiently.

That was the explanation given by the owners, Odie Newell, an Ottumwa, Ia., railroad engineer and his wife, who fed Gift Silver by bottle after the colt's mother died.

The withdrawal of Gift Silver sent a sigh of relief through some 16 owners and trainers planning to run their expensive thoroughbreds in the Derby.

Gift Silver collided with Essie M., a filly, in a workout this morning. This incident so alarmed the other horsemen that they immediately began suggesting Gift Silver's removal.

They were fearful that the horse's inexperience might disrupt the running of the derby.

Mrs. Newell, who broke into tears after the accident, joined her husband in saying after the withdrawal:

"This is not the end. We'll be back to race in a derby some day." Churchill Downs stewards earlier had decided that Warren Perez, the 17-year-old Louisville High school student originally scheduled to ride Gift Silver, was too inexperienced to pilot the horse among the bluebloods of turfdom on Saturday. Perez was astride Gift Silver when the collision occurred.

Meanwhile, as the derby fever mounted in Louisville with the arrival of thousands of visitors, ten horses in the prospective field of 17 were entered formally in the big race.

They are Gushing Oil, Hag Tails, Blue Man, Master Fiddle, Count Flame, Brown Rambler, Hannibal, Smoke Screen, Happy Go Lucky and Sub Fleet.

lated the two athletes for "a wonderful job of selling Pottstown."

Introduced at the dinner were Stanley L. Davenport Jr., borough high school principal; H. Bert Shaw and William H. Yohn, of the school board; Wilbur C. Riley and Perry Bowden, Hill School coaches; Carroll D. "Mush" Bechtel Sr., former Pottstown High coach; and Al Saracen, Norristown Times-Herald sports writer.

Also Robert Bryan, West Pottsgrove High school basketball coach, and his team; Louis Buckwalter and C. Allan Brown, head court coach and assistant at Norco High school, and their players; William McCabe, assistant basketball coach at Pottstown, and the school's team, and Paul Grim, supervising principal of Norco High school.

Rotary President Willard L. Kline thanked Good for arranging the evening's program and Karl Schumacher announced next week's club meeting will be in the Norco elementary school whose students will present a music festival.

The Rev. Martin J. Brinton, pastor of the First Methodist church, gave the invocation.

Girls Softball League Formed

The Recreation Commission announces that a Girls' Softball league will begin play next week.

The league is for Junior High school girls, and games will be played at the Franklin Field annex. Last year, eight teams participated.

Games will be played after school, weekday afternoons, during the month of May.

Mrs. Robert Reis, physical education director for girls of the Junior High school, will direct the league. Girls are signing up now at the school.

HS Player Killed In Auto Accident

YORK, May 1 (AP)—Robert E. Lau, 17, first baseman for the nearby Susquehanna Junior-Senior High school team, died today of injuries received when a truck crashed into an automobile carrying Lau and six teammates.

The accident occurred when the team was returning from Red Lion last night after a game with Red Lion High school. All other occupants of the car were uninjured. Lau died in the York hospital of a skull fracture.

Leshner or Dengler?

May Be Reading Day at Sanatoga

A couple of Reading boys years, and it could be just one of the victor's circle time and again feature loot.

over the past year and this one could break up the home-town monopoly of feature winners at Sanatoga Speedway in this Sunday's action-packed card, should they start getting some breaks at the right times.

Reds Leshner and Smoky Dengler, both products of the Berks county metropolises, have been two of the suburban Pottstown oval's most active point-winners in recent years when he was much more of a favorite with the fans and much more a favorite to cop first

Martinez, Pellone Mix In TV Boxing Feature

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Vince J., youngster is a 9 to 5 favorite. Martinez, another welterweight whiz kid, gets his first major test tomorrow night when he tangles with ring-wise Tony Pellone of New York, in the top ten at St. Nicholas arena. The Paterson, N.

Bratton Stops Langlois in 4

MONTREAL, May 1 (AP)—Johnny Bratton, 148½, Chicago, stopped Pierre Langlois, 150, France, in 2 minutes and 30 seconds of the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round fight tonight.

Langlois went down under Bratton's powerful right. He came up at the count of eight but was still groggy and swaying on his feet. His handlers signaled from the corner he had had enough and it was Bratton's fight by a T.K.O.

Leshner, a red-topped thrill-mer chant who drives like one of Satan's emissaries, has been by far the more consistent in this season's chases 'round the local fifth-of-a-mile hot-rod garden.

Dengler has fallen off a great deal from his performances in recent years when he was much more of a favorite with the fans and much more a favorite to cop first

PROBABLY THE biggest reason for Dengler's decline as a lasting figure throughout the entire program of racing has been his bumpstart inspired outbursts of temper that send him out after the car that nudged him regardless of where either of them was headed.

On several occasions this year, the chase has led him through the backstretch fence. Naturally, a thing like that doesn't enhance anyone's chances of being around for any kind of a top spot at a race's finish, so Dengler hasn't been raking in the old points in the same fashion of previous seasons around here.

In the four feature runoffs completed this year, the results have been almost sewed up by resident drivers of the Pottstown association. Leshner and Dengler are the foremost Berks hopes and its our guess that should either one get a whiff of the air surrounding the top spot, anyone else will have a tough time depriving them of it again.

An added attraction for this week's destruction derby will have as one of the entrants a hearse.

Of course, the funeral coach won't be needed to carry anyone but its driver, but it could be quite a show when the other contestants try to shove the old corpse-carrier around.

Since hitting the comeback trail last January, tough Tony has won four eight round decisions in a row. The 10 p. m. (Pottstown time) bout will get the usual Friday in Shibe Park and his first night radio (ABC) and television (NBC) treatment.

B.F. Goodrich Tubeless Tire

SEALS PUNCTURES, PROTECTS AGAINST BLOWOUTS

• New tread wipes a WET road so DRY you can light a match on it!

The tread of the new B.F. Goodrich "LIFE-SAVER" Tubeless Tire has thousands of flexible "grip blocks," so closely spaced you can hardly see them. They wipe a wet road so dry you can light a match on it—grip like a caterpillar tread. As a result, the "LIFE-SAVER" Tubeless Tire stops on wet pavement up to 20% quicker than other tires, has up to 40% more pulling power.

Under blowout conditions, "LIFE-SAVER" Tubeless Tire loses air so slowly, allows plenty of time for a safe stop. In case of puncture, gummy rubber under the tread seals against puncturing object, plugs hole when object is withdrawn.

Patents covering basic features of Tubeless Tires have been issued to The B.F. Goodrich Company by the U. S. Patent Office.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

GEORGE JESSEL is reputed to own fourteen toupees, which he wears in rotation, each with a little longer hair than the preceding one. Thus, at the end of a fortnight, it appears that he needs a haircut. He tells his friends he's off to the barber's, then reappears with toupee number one, and the cycle begins all over again. Friends bent on flattering Jessel reserve for their surest bet a line like, "Oh, boy, Georgie, do you need to have those golden locks of yours shorn?" Milton Berle crossed him up at a Friars' Frolic, however, by exclaiming loudly, "Some toupee you've got there, Jessel. I can hardly tell it from a wig!"

A customer on a remote farm in Montana addressed an inquiry to a big mail-order house in Chicago, and in due course received a polite reply, neatly typewritten. Back came its letter with this indignant message scrawled across the bottom of the page: "There ain't no need for you to print no letters to me. I read writing."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR
is LONG FELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

It is always right that a man should be able to render a reason for the faith that is within him—Sydney Smith.

Relief in Sight
At long last Pottstown is about to get relief from its hodge-podge, unequal assessment system.

A great step toward efficiency in government was taken Wednesday when Horace Y. Seidel, civic-minded Pottsonian, was named sole assessor of Pottstown's ten wards. His job as assessor will be a full-time one. He is leaving Spicer's, where he was employed for 28 years, to be come a public servant.

For Mr. Seidel, this working for the community will not be a new experience. He has given many, long hours to the betterment of Pottstown for many years, first as a councilman, then as chairman of the Pottstown zoning commission. He has had experience as an assessor.

His interest in the orderly growth of Pottstown, a consuming desire for a liveable community was demonstrated in his arduous work in preparing a zoning law.

The law he sponsored set aside certain sections of Pottstown as wholly residential, others for mercantile, and still others for industrial.

The health and welfare of citizens, particularly children, were considered when clauses of the law decided a certain amount of "air" was necessary around homes.

This restricted "slum" sections. Other portions of the code outlawed building new apartments over garages or in alleys.

Mr. Seidel, as a Pottstown councilman, was known for his hard hitting, his honesty and his desire for progress. He never heeded to party lines, but voted only for the good of the community.

He can be expected to do a thorough, honest job in trying to equalize assessments, a sore need here.

It was obvious, with ten assessors, Pottstown never could get an equalized assessment unless outside experts, at great cost, were hired. The ward assessors were human. Their records never stemmed from a yardstick. Every assessor had his own ideas about property values.

Now, with Mr. Seidel given the job, a general makeover may be expected. He can do the work without great cost to the community. He can do it in a sympathetic way, too.

While some sections of Pottstown have been assessed rather fairly in the past few years, because of the personal interest of William J. Boden, former chief assessor, there still is much work to be done in the interest of fairness and equality.

Mr. Boden must be given credit for equalizing the evaluations along High street and among the industries. But much of the residential section has been untouched.

It is a good move all around. Progress can be looked forward to.

It will take time to re-assess all the homes in the community, but Pottstown may be sure Mr. Seidel will wipe out the inequities that have been so flagrant for years. In this way, every citizen will bear his proportionate and fair share of the cost of government.

A scientific and honest assessment, too, will be of great aid to the school district, where State subsidies are gauged by real estate assessments and sales figures.

Pen Names
A PEN developed by the Boeing Airplane Co. to record details of operation in flight has been christened "Wiggling Willie," and we do not think other deserving pens should be anonymous. The most famous of all pens, for instance, the post office pen, could correctly be addressed as Spluttering Sam.

The pen that writes under water might be named No-Guzzle Norman, the lifetime-guaranteed pen, Permanent Percy, the ball-point pen, the Bally Boulder, and the poison pen, Baneful Bob. The pen that leaks all over one's shirtfront deserves a more impolite monicker, but we guess we will settle for Untidy Utah.

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where so many candidates for the Democratic nomination for president are coming out that by convention time they may outnumber the delegates.

On the other hand, a magazine says there are only 264 elephants in the US. This, to Republicans, sounds like Democratic propaganda!

And say: "Is bike riding good for the health?" asks a reader. I'd say so — if you stay out of High street's heavy traffic.

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where so many candidates for the Democratic nomination for president are coming out that by convention time they may outnumber the delegates.

On the other hand, a magazine says there are only 264 elephants in the US. This, to Republicans, sounds like Democratic propaganda!

And say: "Is bike riding good for the health?" asks a reader. I'd say so — if you stay out of High street's heavy traffic.

Bankruptcy, Hit-Run Cases up for Court

A Pottstown area case that was brought to the attention of the Kefauver committee and the once-deadlocked case of a Pottstown speedway driver are scheduled for trial during the May term of Montgomery County criminal court beginning Monday.

Twenty-eight Pottstown area residents are listed for jury duty during the term.

William M. Strunk, Royersford, and Lewis Campbell Jr., Spring City, are charged with cheating by fraudulent pretenses and false statement by corporate agent.

The case is set to be tried Monday at 10 o'clock before Judge George C. Corson.

THE CHARGES stem from the bankruptcy in June, 1949, of Strunk Steel company, Royersford, of which Strunk was president and Campbell was a director.

Five months before the firm went bankrupt, the controlling interest was sold by Strunk, Campbell and others to Lewis Crusco, who had brought $34,000 in cash to Royersford for the purchase.

The Senate Crime committee, sought to learn where Crusco, who was associated with Richard Samuel, a son of Philadelphia's mayor at the time, Bernard Samuel, had obtained the cash.

After the bankruptcy, Crusco charged that the firm's officers had known when they sold their

New York Marchers Meet With Censure

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP) — A traffic policeman was felled by a stone and marchers in the left-wing May Day parade along Eighth avenue were pelted with eggs, tomatoes, oranges and grapefruit today.

Patrolman Joseph Carraro, 42, was taken to a hospital after a stone struck him at 18th street.

Boos and derisive remarks greeted the marchers all along the 25-block route from 39th to 14th streets. Seven paraders were splattered with oil from an unknown source while waiting for the march to begin.

Some of the women marchers chanted: "One, two, three, four, we don't want another war."

Onlookers countered, "One, two, three, one, two three, hang a Red from every tree."

OBITUARIES

NEWTON A. KULP, 56, PENNSBURG insurance man, died last night of a heart attack in Pottstown shortly after completing the sale of his 26-year-old business. He suffered the attack at 9 p. m. in the automobile of Lawrence Yerk, Pennsburg real estate dealer, who had driven Kulp and his wife to Pottstown to complete arrangements for the purchase of the insurance business.

After leaving the office of Attorney Victor J. Roberts, where necessary documents had been signed, Kulp told Yerk he was feeling faint.

Yerk stopped the car before Yerk's Beauty Shop, 366 High street, and went in to ask for a glass of water. The proprietor advised him of a doctor's office nearby, at 73 North Franklin street.

Yerk drove there, then went in and asked for help. Dr. Jacob G. Shade came out, examined the man in the car, and pronounced him dead. He advised Yerk to take the body to Memorial hospital, where Mr. Kulp was pronounced dead on arrival.

A Pennsburg funeral home picked the body up shortly thereafter. Arrangements will be completed this morning.

A native of Pennsburg, Mr. Kulp resided for a time in Sassamansville, then returned to Pennsburg 26 years ago to establish the insurance business he sold just before his death, due to failing eyesight.

He was a member of American Legion Post 184, East Greenville; the Order of Owls, East Greenville; the Pennsburg Fire company, and the Pennsburg Reformed church.

He is survived by his father, Roeller J. Kulp of Pennsburg; his widow, Elsie (Gebert) Kulp; twin daughters, Fay and Fern, at home; a brother, Russell R. Kulp, of Red Hill; a sister, Emma Wisler, of Quakertown, and a half-sister, Hulda Kulp, of Pennsburg.
